

Kimberly Library's Tails and Tales Summer Events

Yarn Bird Craft Kits for Adults

Monday, June 7

Kimberly Public Library

Call 920-788-7515 to request a to-go kit. Supplies limited.

Request an adult Yarn Bird Craft Kit to create a tweetally awesome yarn bird. These kits contain all of the yarn, beads, felt, and wire needed to create a yarn bird decoration for your houseplants. Adults need only supply the glue, scissors, paper towel, and creativity! Due to the difficulty of this craft, kits will be reserved for adults. Call the library at 920-788-7515 to request a kit starting June 1.

Tails and Tales: Community Art Exhibit

June 1-July 30, 2021, ongoing

Kimberly Public Library Display Case

The Kimberly Public Library will display works of art inspired by animals and created by community members of all ages. Stop into the library to enjoy drawing, painting, quilting, and felting art made by members of the Kimberly community. To participate, art (of all mediums) can be dropped off at the circulation desk by June 15th. All art will be returned during the first week of August.

Cat Tales Supply Drive for Special Needs Shelter Cats

June 1-July 30, 2021, ongoing

Kimberly Public Library

See list of shelter needs at the library.

In partnership with Safe Haven Pet Sanctuary, the Kimberly Public Library will host a supply drive for special needs shelter cats. Come to the library to read cat tales, meet the shelter's current cats, and donate to keep our community cats comfortable while they wait for their forever homes.

Farm Animal Petting Zoo with Cavanaugh's Carriages

Tuesday, June 8 from 3-6 p.m.

Sunset Park Shelter #1 (West Entrance to top of the hill)

Kick off Kimberly Library's Tails and Tales Summer Reading Program with cute and cuddly critters. Cavanaugh's Carriages of Neenah will showcase miniature horses and donkeys plus other farm animals for the whole family to meet. In addition, enjoy an animal tale with a story walk along the path. Stop by any time during the event for family fun! Thank you to our sponsors: Friends of Kimberly Library and the Kimberly Recreation Association.

Pottery Painting in the Park for Teens and Adults

Tuesday, June 15 from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

Sunset Park Shelter #1 1 (West Entrance to top of the hill by the playground)

Registration Required

Teens entering grades 6-12 and adults are invited to paint a piece of pottery from The Fire in Appleton. All supplies will be on hand, and the pieces will be fired and returned to participants to pick up at the Kimberly Library on a later date. Adults will paint a planter, and teens may choose either an owl or panda figurine. Stop by between 4:30-5:30 p.m. to begin the project to be finished by 6:30 p.m. Registration is required for the ages listed as supplies are limited. Call the library at 920-788-7515 to register starting June 1.

Heckrodt Wetland Reserve Presents Owls

Wednesday, July 21, 2021 at 10:30 a.m.

Sunset Park Amphitheater

Registration Required

Learn about our forest friends by registering for this free talk on owls. Heckrodt Wetland Reserve will discuss owl behavior at Sunset Amphitheater. This talk is geared toward an adult audience. To keep this event safe and available, please register in advance. Space is limited. Beginning July 1st, patrons may call the library at 920-788-7515 or email Tracy at thaack@kimberlypubliclibrary.org to register.

Miller & Mike Comedy Show

Thursday, June 17 at 6:30 p.m.

Sunset Park Amphitheater (East Entrance)

Bring a chair/blanket and enjoy the comedy antics of Miller and Mike! Loaded with lots of energy, juggling, and good clean fun, this hilarious show is great for the whole family. Brought to you by the Kimberly Library and sponsored by a grant from the Outagamie-Waupaca Library System.

We Love Animals Virtual Story Time

Fridays at 10 a.m. on Facebook Live

June 18 & 25, July 16 & 23

Ms. Ann will share tales about tails of many kinds. Hear funny stories and factual books featuring animal characters and view virtual visits with live animals. Geared for preschool and early elementary ages.

Birds of Wisconsin

Monday, June 21 at 1:30 p.m.

Sunset Park Shelter #1 (West Entrance to top of the hill by the playground)

Ready for a real tweet? Learn to identify the many birds that make Wisconsin their home with a lively presentation by naturalist Lee Hammen. Geared for 4K-Grade 5, but all ages welcome.

Tom Pease in Concert

Tuesday, June 29 at 10:30 a.m.

Sunset Park Amphitheater (East Entrance)

Bring a chair/blanket and get ready for some great children's music with favorite songster Tom Pease. Brought to you by the Kimberly Library and sponsored by a grant from the Outagamie-Waupaca Library System.

The Magic of Rondini

Tuesday, July 13 at 10:30 a.m.

Sunset Park Amphitheater (East Entrance)

Be dazzled and amazed as local favorite Rondini performs mesmerizing magic with his sidekick, Einstein the World's Cutest Bunny. Fun for all ages. Bring a blanket/chair for comfy seating.

Animal Tales Writing Workshop for 5th-8th Graders

Tuesday, July 20 at 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Sunset Park Shelter #1 (West Entrance to top of the hill by the playground)

Stretch your creativity and capture your love for animals in this guided writing workshop with author and librarian Jill Van Den Eng. Writing supplies will be provided.

Furry Critters of Wisconsin

Monday, July 26 at 1:30 p.m.

Sunset Park Shelter #1 (West Entrance to top of the hill by the playground)

Are they fur real?! Learn about the various mammals that make Wisconsin their home, presented by naturalist Lee Hammen. Kids will get a chance to see and touch animal pelts and ask questions about their favorite animals. Geared for 4K-Grade 5, but all ages welcome.

Don't Touch a Truck Event

Wednesday, July 29 at 4:30-7:30 p.m.

Treaty Park, Kimberly (off Maes Avenue between Red and White Cedar Parkways)

A first of its kind event in the Village of Kimberly! Vroom over to Treaty Park to check out an array of mighty vehicles. The Kimberly Fire Department, Fox Valley Metro Police, and the Kimberly Street Department will feature amazing equipment for an up-close view. The Fox Valley Food Truck Association will be on hand offering a variety of dinner options for purchase. In addition, check out the park's new playground equipment, enjoy a book walk featuring Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus, and hear great music by Randy Peterson from 5:30-6:30 p.m. sponsored by the Kimberly Library. Check out the event's Facebook Page for updates on this fun-filled community event.